If you are a sensitive, perfectionist melancholic, recognize that your self-worth does not depend on being perfect. Don't worry about the past or future; live in the present moment. Learn what things you can let go of; especially let go of negative self-judgments. When you are overwhelmed by your own thoughts or emotions, try focusing on others instead; be charitable and thankful; keep a gratitude journal; don't set your goals and expectations impossibly high; practice flexibility and sociability. To motivate yourself, think "what is the worst that could happen?"
